

Summer Staff FAQ

◆ Why should I choose Bair Lake?

At Bair Lake we exist to inspire this generation to encounter God. Our full-time staff strive to build into you professionally and personally as you serve Christ and BLBC whole-heartedly. You will be loved, cared for, poured into and encouraged in your faith as you are challenged physically, mentally, spiritually and emotionally. Many staff say that in one summer at BLBC they grew more in their faith journey than every before!

◆ Is this a paid position?

YES! Staff are paid, and housing provided with the BEST camp food are provided for you!!!

◆ Is there a maximum age for Summer Staffing?

Unlike T-Swift we are feeling 24 not 22 is the max age!

◆ Will camp only be accepting Smr Staff who have been out of High School for at least one year?

NO! Applicants must be graduated from High School, and 18 years old. If you are 17 and interested, apply, but know that age is a consideration because of the legal requirements for many of the positions.

◆ Do you do the same job all summer?

Smr Staff will be trained for a minimum of two positions. Rotation between positions helps keep everyone rested and fresh!

(This is a goal, but not a promise.)

◆ What happens after I fill out the application?

You will be contacted to continue the process via email, make sure to follow the directions provided. Filling out the application doesn't mean your making a commitment, just exploring the options. We love EXPLORERS!

◆ Are there early Summer Staffing opportunities available?

Yes, we try to bring on two to four smr staff in May.

◆ Can I have time off during the summer?

Time off is not encouraged, but not impossible. It is determined on a case by case basis. It is not encouraged, but not impossible. Please note any time off needed in your application and it will be discussed in your interview.

◆ Is there anything else we should know?

Yes. You are loved and wanted. We know we will have to say no to a few, but know that we will prayerfully consider all applicants. If we can help you in any way in your life journey we desire to be available.
